

COI Self-Report Form: Diabetology International, the Journal of Japanese Diabetes Society (JDS)

First Author Name: _____

Title of the paper: _____

(All authors must describe the COI status, for the past three years from the previous year of the paper submission, with any companies, organizations, and/or groups related to the content of the publication.)

Item	Applicability	If “Yes,” indicate company names, etc.
(1) Compensation for a position of a board member or advisor in a profit-making business, legal entity, or organization 1 million yen or more annual compensation from a single business, entity, or group	Yes / No
(2) Stock holdings 1 million yen or more annual dividends or 5% or more stock shares in the applicable business	Yes / No
(3) Patent royalties 1 million yen or more annual income per patent	Yes / No
(4) Honoraria for lectures 500 thousand yen or more total annual income from a single company or organization	Yes / No
(5) Honoraria for manuscripts 500 thousand yen or more total annual income from a single company or organization	Yes / No
(6) Total clinical research grants (e.g. clinical trial, commissioned research, joint research) 1 million yen or more total annual research grants paid from a single company or organization which you can practically decide the way of use	Yes / No
(7) Total scholarship grants (incentives), etc. 1 million yen or more total annual scholarship contributed by a single company or organization to you or your department which you can practically decide the way of use	Yes / No
(8) Courses endowed by companies, etc. 1 million yen or more total annual endowment by a company, etc. for a course you belong to	Yes / No
(9) Receiving travel expenses or gifts 50 thousand yen or more annually from a single company or organization	Yes / No

(This COI report will be kept for two years after the publication of the paper. The content of your report will not be disclosed to a third party.)

(Submission date) Day Month Year

Author (Name)

(Signature)